July 15th -2018 - The 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

~ YEAR B ~

Words of Our Pope:

Growth in holiness is a journey in community, side by side with others. We see this in some holy communities. From time to time, the Church has canonized entire communities that lived the Gospel heroically or offered to God the lives of all their members.

Looking at the Readings:

We have a real prophet of God in Amos (first reading). He is in every way different to the other prophets of the day. Those nameless prophets belong to a professional association, "The Brotherhood of Prophets". It sounds like an industrial union. They are employed and paid by the political and religious rulers of Israel. Therefore they must be careful not to disturb the establishment. The establishment is powerful, prosperous and protective of their privileges. Amos does disturb them.

Amaziah wants him out and tries his "establishment" arguments against Amos. He insults him, intimidates him, accuses him of fraud and withdraws his "Visa" and his "Licence". Amos stands his ground. He has no visa, no licence, no payment, no bread, no fear, no hidden agenda, no royal patronage, no sponsorship, in a word nothing to lose. A prophet is not recognised in his own country and we see not accepted in a foreign country as well, What a dilemma! Sounds familiar!

But Amos is not fazed. He was called and empowered by God. He sees the evils of the age and speaks out with inner and immediate conviction and feeling. He is firm and gentle, prophesies exile and homecoming, destruction and reconstruction. This account of Amos accompanies the Gospel when Jesus sends out the apostles with no bread, no haversack, no money, no change of clothes. But they take the Word of God and the example of Christ with them to proclaim the kingdom of God. What credentials and baggage do we want or need as Christians?

GOSPEL: MARK 6:7-13

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs giving them authority over the unclean spirits.

And he instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff - no bread, no haversack, no coppers for their purses. They were to wear sandals, but, he added,
 'Do not take a spare tunic.' And he said to them, 'If you enter a house anywhere, stay there until you leave the district.

And if any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, as you walk away shake off the dust from under your feet as a sign to them.'

So they set off to preach repentance; and they cast out many devils, and anointed many sick people with oil and cured them.

Readings this week

Synodality in Practice: Listening to the Spirit and Leading Change

This 14th National eConference will focus on engaging communities around Australia in a landmark discussion about the future vision and direction of the Catholic Church in our country.

This discussion is timed to coincide with the 2020 Plenary Council - the first such synod for the Australian Church in 80 years.
Speakers at this year's eConference will focus on models of leadership in the contemporary Church, draw fresh insights from Pope Francis' vision of synodality and examine how the upcoming Plenary Council may help promote a more inclusive, dialogical Church.

Date: Wednesday 8 August

Cost: Free
