June 16th - 2019 - The Most Holy Trinity

Acknowledgement of Country:

We, Wodonga Catholic Parish, acknowledge the Traditional Custodians of the land where our churches, schools and buildings are located. We pay our respect to the Aboriginal people and Elders past and present whose spirits dwell in this land. May the spirit of this ancient land be always with us.

Pope Francis Tweets:

Let the Church always be a place of mercy and hope, where everyone is welcomed, loved and forgiven.

Pope Francis@Pontifex

Looking At The Readings:

Both the first reading and the psalm response celebrate the marvels of creation and the marvelous creator who brought them into being. Proverbs states that God created all of these things through Wisdom. While later theology will identify Wisdom with both the Word of God, the second person of the Trinity, and the Holy Spirit, the third person, the reading itself does not suggest this.

Paul credits God with our justification through faith. Justification or salvation is accomplished by God through our Lord Jesus Christ. The love of God is poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit. Paul does not clearly state that the love of God that we receive through the Holy Spirit sanctifies us, but one could certainly understand it in this way.

John's theology resembles very closely that of Paul. In it, Jesus reveals the intimate connection between himself and the Father as well as himself and the Spirit. The Spirit continues the mission of Jesus, neither adding anything to his teaching nor omitting anything from it.

While this is a feast that glorifies the central mystery of our faith, a mystery that is based on the way the three divine persons relate to each other, the readings all address ways that God relates to us. If we concentrate, as the texts for today suggest that we do, on all of the ways that our Triune God has blessed us, we may be more inclined to cry out with the psalmist: 'O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!' © Dianne Bergant CSA

Eucharistic Ministry to the Sick or Homebound

Volunteers Needed: For the sick and homebound reception of communion is a sign of support and concern shown by their Parish community. When an Extraordinary Minister is called forth, delegated and commissioned by her/his parish to share communion with those who are sick or homebound, that minister becomes an extension of the community. *Would you like to know more about Eucharistic Ministry to the sick & homebound? The Journey Catholic Radio Program

Airs 23 June 2019

All Journey Catholic Radio information is a week in advance.

This week on The Journey, you will hear a short reflection from Fr Mark after our Gospel reading of Luke 9:11-17. We have some of your favorites Bruce Downes, The Catholic Guy, Mother Hilda and her wise words from the Abbey and our very own Pete Gilmore talking a big game New Testament. Tune into LIFE 105.1 FM Sunday 11am or Wednesday 3pm or go to WWW.jcr.org.au or www.itunes.jcr.org.au and to ensure that you never miss a show it can be sent to you each week as a podcast via email – for free.

Eucharistic Ministry and Reading Rosters

New Rosters will be prepared shortly for the period August to December. If you are not available during this period of time, please contact the Parish Centre. Ph 60243366

Backpack Beds:

Backpack Beds are a crisis measure that give lifesaving shelter keeping homeless alive with dignity.

This year our local branch of St Vincent de Paul are hoping to purchase Backpack beds for the annual winter Appeal. Just $95 will purchase a backpack with storage that rolls out into an all-weather protected bed.

IMAGINE YOU ARE HOMELESS

How would you want to be treated?

Backpack BEDS SAVE LIVES:

This year 40,000+ Aussies will sleep on our streets. Up to 21% of street sleeping homeless have suffered hypothermia, frostbite or trench foot. 92% of Backpack Bed recipients expect to sleep on the street for more than a week. Over 600 Homeless Agency participants handing out backpack beds: Established in Australia, now used in New Zealand, United Kingdom, Germany, USA, Canada, Spain and South Africa. Backpack Beds are 100% funded by public donations. Your donation is tax deductible.

GOSPEL: JOHN 16:12-15

Jesus said to his disciples:

‘I still have many things to say to you
But they would be too much for you now.

But when the Spirit of truth comes
He will lead you to the complete truth,
since he will not be speaking as from himself
but will say only what he has learnt;
And he will tell you of the things to come.

He will glorify me
since all he tells you will be taken from what is mine.

Everything the Father has is mine;
that is why I said:

All he tells you will be taken from what is mine.’

Readings this week

Proverbs 8:22-31

Romans 5:1-5

John 16:12-15

Readings next week:

Genesis 14:18-20

1 Cor 11:23-26

Luke 9:11-17

Responsorial Psalm:

O Lord our God, how wonderful your name
in all the earth.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia! Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was,
and who is to come. Alleluia!

Prayer of the Faithful:

Lord, hear our prayer!
