September 8th - 2019 - The 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time.

Acknowledgement of Country:

We, Wodonga Catholic Parish, acknowledge the Traditional Custodians of the land where our churches, schools and buildings are located. We pay our respect to the Aboriginal people and Elders past and present whose spirits dwell in this land.
May the spirit of this ancient land be always with us.

Pope Francis:

Creation is of the order of love. God's love is the fundamental moving force in all created things. ~ Pope Francis Laudato Si' #77

Child Protection Sunday:

Abuse and neglect of our children is preventable.

If we all work together as a community, we can create an Australia where all children can grow up safe and well.

Child Protection Sunday affords the opportunity to remind parishioners of the specific policies and practices that have been put in place in our parishes and in our Diocese to ensure the on-going protection and safeguarding of our children.

- Child Safety Policy (and Reportable Conduct Scheme)
- Parish Code of Conduct
- Child Safety Reporting Process
- Parish Privacy Policy
- Risk Management Schedule.

Copies of these policies are displayed and available from our website www.wodongacatholicparish.com.au or on request at our Parish Centre.

All these policies and materials are based on the 7 Child Safety Standards.

Season of Creation:

This is our special time for the Creator and each other. Christians around the world celebrate the Season of Creation. Some of us pray, some of us do hands-on projects, some of us advocate. We all protect creation. It's powerfully good work that's urgently needed. The momentum continues long after the season ends through ongoing prayer, changes in life-style, and advocacy.

During the Season of Creation, we live out our faith to care for creation.

Today's Readings remind us that God creates all life on earth over eons, even the air we breathe. Have we taken these gifts of God for granted and the people around us? From www.columban.org.au Also visit seasonofcreation.org

GOSPEL: LUKE 14:25-33

Great crowds accompanied Jesus on his way and he turned and spoke to them.

'If any man comes to me without hating his father, mother, wife, children, brothers, sisters, yes, and his own life too, he cannot be my disciple.

Anyone who does not carry his cross and come after me cannot be my disciple.

'And indeed, which of you here, intending to build a tower, would not first sit down and work out the cost to see if he had enough to complete it? Otherwise, if he laid the foundation and then found himself unable to finish the work, the onlookers would all start making fun of him and saying,

"Here is a man who started to build and was unable to finish."

Or again, what king marching to war against another king would not first sit down and consider whether with ten thousand men he could stand up to the other who advanced against him with twenty thousand?

If not, then while the other king was still a long way off, he would send envoys to sue for peace.

So in the same way, none of you can be my disciple unless he gives up all his possessions.'
